HOPE LEARNING ACADEMY EDWARDSVILLE

Kindergarten - 12th

115 Rottingham Ct
Edwardsville, IL
62025
(217) 585-5123

Who We Are

Hope Learning Academy Edwardsville (HLAE) is a therapeutic day school, located in the heart of Madison County. The Edwardsville School provides a state-of-the-art learning environment supported by a staff of certified special education teachers, dedicated therapists, and paraprofessionals.

Our Goal

Our goal is to help children live joyful, independent and productive lives. Our programs, which are individualized for each student, are designed to improve basic life and vocational skills while increasing the potential for independence.

Our Program

With a population of 262,966. Madison county encompasses much of the eastern part of St. Louis. Of that population, 16% have some form of disability, 5% higher that the state average of 11%. By partnering with local schools, HLAE provides much needed services to children in grades Kindergarten - 8th.

Students learn alongside their peers in a group environment, outfitted with:

- Smartboards
- Tablets
- Specific equipment dedicated to varying sensory needs

Hope
Learning Academy Edwardsville

Featured Programs

- Therapeutic education program
- Independence learning program
- Community integrated classrooms
- Visual supports and designated sensory areas

Hope Learning Academy is licensed by the Illinois State Board of Education, and offers an array of education services and supports to students to meet their educational needs and goals.

For information on how to enroll, contact:

Mr. Jim Lee, Superintendent
jlee@hope.us